

5

6

7

8

9

- FLIGHTS
Auckland to Rarotonga (Special) Air NZ $239 each way. Rarotonga to Aitutaki $160 each way or $109 on Mondays.
- ACCOMMODATION
Gina's Garden Lodges Single $75 a night and $120 double (Can sleep up to 5)
<http://www.ginasaitutakidesire.com> – This I highly recommend. Quiet, secluded, very clean and central to island activities. Enquiries via email to queen@aitutaki.net.ck
- SCOOTER HIRE
$20 a day or $100 a week (7 days)
- FOOD
Fruit and local foods from the market $8 a day, Lunch hamburgers etc about $5-$8 a day. Dinner either self catering (buy NZ goods from the store. Restaurants are about the same prices as here or less.
- LAGOON CRUISE
from $65 each including lunch
- DINNER AND TRADITIONAL DANCE SHOW
$75 each Te Vaka Restaurant (part of Temanu Beach)
- LOTS OF OTHER ACTIVITIES are available such as Scuba Diving, Snorkeling, Water Sports, Kayaks or Paddle Boats, Island Cruise, Fishing, Hiking Trails, Bikes, Golf and more.

PICTURES

1. The idyllic tropical setting of Gina's Beach Lodge Akaiami Island within the Aitutaki Lagoon
2. The Dinner Dance show was excellent held on Thursdays at the Te Vaka Restauant
3. The crisp white sand and beautiful clear waters of Akaiami Island
4. Hosts - Manarangi Tutai Ariki, the Queen of Aitutaki and her Husband Des Clarke at their Akaiami Beach bungalow.
5. A Main course of local coconut crab – So incredibly delicious $60,
6. Sparkling ocean views and warm temperatures everyday!
7. Sitting in the crystal clear turquoise lukewarm water of Aitutaki lagoon with a beer in hand... looking across at Maina Island thinking ... this is perfect!
8. View of the pool, sundeck and garden - Gina's Garden Lodges
9. Fire Dancing, Te Vaka Restaurant