

Silhouettes softer and more fluid and layering is stronger than ever

This season offers a magic potion of colour, texture and pattern that meets demands for warmth and lifestyle. There's a new form in fashion this winter with silhouettes softer and more fluid and layering is stronger than ever. Check out the following key details to help you put your winter wardrobe together.

Preview can offer you all these vital winter pieces complete with our $39 tights and $69 scoop neck under tops available in black, white, red, teal, purple, orange, cobalt and cream.

Every label Preview has to offer has included the ever popular tunic in their ranges with new labels R.J.C., Vargo and Café being no exception.

The free Preview knitwear brochure is in store, ready to scoop up and inspire that winter purchase. Preview is proud of the winter 09 collection it has in store and provides something for every attitude, lifestyle and body shape.

"I love this layering look- it is so easy to wear and comfortable to boot. You can add colour or stick to black depending on your mood. Change your look by adding accessories and wear it loose or cinched for more body shape.

The team at Preview- Liz, Lauren, Lorraine, Amanda, Alli and Leigh look forward to helping you put together that important winter look. Special welcome to 'Baby Lyla'.
