

It would have taken thousands of feet over aeons to wear down these ancient NZ stone steps.

EDITOR: This concludes the current series of New Zealand History Under Siege. The series will resume later in the year with in-depth investigation into the peoples Maori found when they arrived in NZ, revealing startling new evidence about the tiny Turehu people. PLUS Poukawa: Our most shameful archaeological coverup.

Mysteries of the Past...

The compilation of all NZ history articles will be available as a separate publication in the near future. You can pre-order a copy by sending your name, phone number, email address to eLocal magazine. We will let you know the price before purchase.
